Ready to sign up?

Read over the important Rules of Conduct below, and return your registration form and payment to the school office by March 3. If you wish to bring a guest who does not attend Camelot, you should also complete the back side of the registration form.

Rules of Conduct:

- Be courteous to all staff. This includes all parents, chaperones, and teachers.
- All guests must be accompanied by the student who invited them.
- Be courteous with phone use. Do not take or post images of other people without their permission.
- You may not exit the dance and then return. Once you enter the venue you are expected to stay. You will join the dance and leave only when your parent/guardian arrives to pick you up for the night or, if you are a driver, when you are dismissed.
- All student drivers must sign out with a teacher or chaperone before leaving. No exceptions.
- Students and guests can be asked to leave the dance due to disorderly conduct, inappropriate behavior, or failing to comply with requests or decisions made by the chaperones (administration, teachers, parents, security and staff).
- Illegal substances, alcohol, and cigarettes are strictly prohibited and anyone found with these things will be turned over to the proper authorities.
- Disciplinary process may include, but is not limited to, disciplinary warning/probation and expulsion.

*Seniors should still submit a registration form. If your guest is a Camelot student, submit both of your forms together.

Frosted Wonderland Dance 2025

This completed form and payment (cash or check to Camelot) are due to the school office by March 3 from all students who plan to attend.
